Recognizing Elizabeth Lawton
Lakewood/Chester Sister Cities Music Scholar Exchange Program
Representing Chester, England

WHEREAS, at 11 years old, Elizabeth was accepted by the Chetham's School of Music, where she provided numerous performances including solo and chamber music, and was a member of the Symphony Orchestra; and

WHEREAS, in 2003 and 2004, she was principal flute in the National Children's Orchestra of Great Britain and the National Youth Chamber Orchestra of Great Britain; and

WHEREAS, Elizabeth has won several awards and was named semifinalist for the woodwind section of the 2008 BBC TV Young Musician of the Year competition. She also won the Liverpool Performing Arts Instrumentalist of the Year award in 2009; and

WHEREAS, Elizabeth has been studying at the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland for her undergraduate and master's degrees. She has given a number of solo recitals across the country as well as many chamber performances throughout Scotland with her trio Champagne Flutes; and

WHEREAS, Elizabeth's ambition is for a career that would combine orchestral work, teaching and solo performances. She is a member of the Highland Band and the Royal Regiment of Scotland; and

WHEREAS, as the winner of the Lakewood/Chester Sister Cities Music Scholar Exchange Program for 2014, Elizabeth is delighted to have the opportunity to play for an American audience.

NOW, THEREFORE, on behalf of the City Council and the residents of Lakewood, I Bob Murphy, Mayor of the City of Lakewood, Colorado, by virtue of the authority vested in me do hereby recognize the Lakewood/Chester Sister Cities Music Exchange Scholar

Elizabeth Lawton

And extend our best wishes to her during her visit to Lakewood this April and throughout her musical career.

GIVEN under my hand and Seal of the City of Lakewood, this 7th day of April 2014.

Bob Murphy, Mayor
