O-2012-3

AN ORDINANCE

AMENDING CHAPTER 9.38 OF THE LAKEWOOD MUNICIPAL CODE RELATING TO SMOKING IN PUBLIC PLACES

WHEREAS, in 2009 the City Council adopted an ordinance modeled after the Colorado Clean Indoor Air Act relating to the regulation of smoking in public places; and

WHEREAS, thereafter, the Mayor and the City Council formed an Ad Hoc Committee to compile and review additional information from the public about the hazards of smoking in public places and to make recommendations concerning possible additional amendments to the smoking ordinance; and

WHEREAS, the Committee held numerous public meetings, solicited extensive public comment, and developed a series of recommendations for further restrictions on public smoking; and

WHEREAS, on February 6, 2012, the City Council held a lengthy study session for the purpose of reviewing the recommendations submitted by the Committee and by members of the public on possible revisions to the Lakewood Smoking Ordinance, and at the conclusion of the session gave direction to City staff regarding the terms of a draft ordinance containing further restrictions on public smoking; and

WHEREAS, based on the voluminous public comment and the work of the Ad Hoc Committee, City Council finds that second-hand smoke constitutes a serious health hazard even in outdoor locations, and desires to adopt additional restrictions on smoking in public places for the purpose of protecting Lakewood citizens and visitors from the damaging effects of second-hand smoke.
