1	This park is very close to 3 high-density apartment buildings and a few duplexes. Since many of those residences do not have yards, it's nice to have it as a bit of an open space oasis, but I'm opposed to changes that will make it more popular, crowded and/or noisy. There's nothing wrong with a simple grass field. I also like the fact that the playground equipment is outdated. Not everything has to be modern, and the equipment gets plenty of use, if not maintenance (you can hear the swings squeaking a block away.) That being said, I'd love to have a chain link baseball batting cage right next door, since the one at Morse Park was inexplicably destroyed.	3/9/2016 5:53 PM
2	Climbing wall. Baseball, football or volleyball area.	2/23/2016 11:24 AM
3	Sand box and or water play. Climbing structures of different varieties for smaller children.	2/21/2016 7:48 PM
